

EDIA Professional Development Scholarships

Applicants need not be OLA members to apply

Oregon Library Association's Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Antiracism (EDIA) Committee is looking to support library-service related professional development with scholarships*, open to library staff (employed, unemployed, volunteers) in all library types in Oregon who:

- identify as belonging to one or more marginalized, minoritized, and racialized communities seeking general professional development;
- looking to develop skills in providing culturally relevant services to communities that are historically and currently underserved and under-resourced OR,
- seeking professional development on, related to or impacting efforts towards equity, diversity, inclusion and/or antiracism in their libraries or the communities they serve

Scholarships are made possible in whole by the Institute of Museum and Library Services through the Library Services and Technology Act, administered by the State Library of Oregon*
 Applications will be given priority*

- The learning event must begin before the end of July 2026
- All scholarship recipients must complete a short post-evaluation provided by the State Library of Oregon
